

Seeking Liberty Exhibition
Cell Phone Walking Tour

-  100 Banneker-Douglass Museum
84 Franklin Street
-  110 Reynolds Tavern
7 Church Circle
-  120 Jonas Green House
124 Charles Street
-  130 Maynard-Burgess House
163 Duke of Gloucester Street
-  140 Governor Calvert House
58 State Circle
-  150 Brice House
42 East Street

FREE CELL PHONE AUDIO TOUR

(No cost except your minutes.)

Dial (410) 202-3015, then follow the prompts.
Tour the exhibit at your own pace.

Please refrain from cell phone conversations and speakerphone use while in the museum.

SEEKING LIBERTY

Annapolis: An Imagined Community

Banneker-Douglass Museum

84 Franklin Street
Annapolis, MD 21401
410-216-6180
www.bdmuseum.com

This tour is funded in part by a grant from the Four Rivers Heritage Area.

Cell Phone Tour Headings

Dial (410) 202-3015, then follow the prompts. Be sure to hit the # sign after the prompt number.

1# The search for liberty.

2# Learn how this stamp helped start a revolution.

3# What is this object?

4# Discover a tale of two communities.

5# How did the Calvert House objects survive in such good condition?

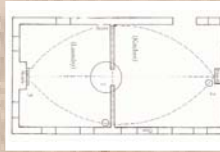

6# View the many lives of Reynolds Tavern.

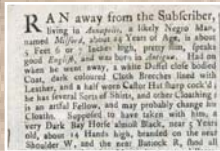

7# How do archaeologists know this is a cache?

8# What does this object tell us about African religious practices in Annapolis?

9# Why are these objects placed in the shape of a football?

10# What is the nation's oldest newspaper in continuous publication?

11# What woman ran one of the most powerful businesses in Maryland in the 18th century?

12# Meet Annapolis' first African American homeowner.

13# How did this bottle help fight racism?

20# Tell us what you think.